

CONFERENCE in ROME - 2 February 2018

THE LAY AND HONORARY JUDICIARY IN EUROPE. COMPARATIVE SYSTEMS

After the signing of the European Charter of Lay Judges, on 12 May 2012 elaborated by the European Academy of Berlin, and in view of the European Day of Lay Judges to be held in Naples from 11 to 13 May 2018, the ENALJ Presidency, whose purpose is to carry out a monitoring of the Lay and Honorary judiciary by means of cooperation and comparison between the various European Associations, in cooperation with the Associazione Nazionale Giudici di pace a Conference with the aim to compare the various systems of the European countries concerning Lay and Honorary Judges.

The Conference, which is expected to be attended by other European Associations, the first of its kind, is considered to be of particular importance also in light of the Honorary Judicial Reform.

The work will be coordinated by Lawyer Margherita Morelli, ENALJ President, District Representative of the Honorary Judiciary of the High School of Magistrates and the Study Centre of the Associazione Nazionale Giudici di Pace, by the President Dr. Gabriele Di Girolamo, and by Lawyer Umberto Aleotti, University Professor and EU and International Law expert .

The Vice President of the Superior Council of Judges is expected to attend and the Minister of Justice or one of his delegates, Andrea Maestri, a member of the Justice Commission, Nicola Caputo who is the MEP, the delegated political representative, Lawyer and other Associations.

Who hope the Conference will have a minimum annual meeting to have a concrete and proper use of Lay and Honorary Judges in the administration of Justice as an element of civilization and democracy, principles inspired by the European Charter of Lay Judges.

We hope in the greetings of the Vice President of European Commission

We remain pending confirmation of participation and further membership.

Best Regards

Margherita Morelli, ENALJ President
